

The Smooth Collie Club of Great Britain

Working / Veteran / Junior Handler points awards 2011:

The SCC of GB offer Special Rosettes to encourage: junior handlers to show their dogs, the rest of us to give our oldies a few outings, and those who do working disciplines with their Smooths, thus demonstrating the versatility of the breed.

1. Working Smooth

Points to be gained in the current year, at licensed events, by one Smooth Collie.

Points	Obedience	Agility	Working Trials	Flyball	Heelwork to Music	PAT	Good Citizens
20		1st-3rd	CD			qualifying as a PAT dog	Gold
15	1st	4th-6th	extra for CDex		1st place		Silver
10	2nd	7th-10th			2nd place or Level 3 progress tests		Bronze
5	3rd	11th-14th		1st	3rd place or Level 2 progress tests
4	4th	15th-19th		2nd	4th place
2	5th	20th+over		3rd	5th place or Level 1 progress tests
1	6th	unplaced clear round	for competing in each WT	4th	6th place	per month in which a PAT visit made

Agility: points in any classes and solo fun classes (helter skelter etc) at Open or Championship Agility Shows (agility and jumping) - points for placings only if awarded.

Obedience: points in any class at Limited, Open & Championship shows.

Flyball: if competed in team (not non-running reserve)

2. Agility

Agility only, points scored as in 'Working' above.

3. Versatility

Working points as 'Working' above (a maximum of 50 working points to count). Breed points as for Redevalley Rosita Trophy (a maximum of 50 breed points to count). To be gained by a Smooth Collie gaining points in both working and breed.

4. Veteran

Points as for Redevalley Rosita Trophy plus points for any Major Wins and / or points as for 'Working' above. To be gained by a Smooth Collie of 7 years of age & over (when points gained).

5. Junior Handler

Points as for Redevalley Rosita Trophy, in Breed or Junior Handling classes and / or points as for 'Working' above. To be gained by a Junior Handler under 18 (when points gained), handling any Smooth Collie.

Note: Points for the Redevalley Rosita trophy & Major Wins are described in Christmas issues of The Smooth Look.